NEW BERN

Village in the Woods, New Bern Neighborhood

Village in the Woods is a welcoming neighborhood nestled amid mature trees and winding streets, offering charming single-family homes with spacious yards and classic Southern character. Residents enjoy a friendly, close-knit atmosphere, where quiet cul-de-sacs and leafy surroundings create a true sense of community and a peaceful retreat from the everyday.

New Bern provides a calm and tranquil environment with predominantly single detached homes built around 1990. Residents have access to various dining options and approximately 20 grocery stores within a convenient distance when traveling by car. The city offers both public and private schools at elementary and high school levels, giving educational choices for its inhabitants. Despite having few bike lanes, the streets remain peaceful and restful, contributing to a serene atmosphere throughout the neighborhood. Parking is generally easy to find, and properties are closely connected to nearby highways, making daily commuting straightforward and efficient.

The character of New Bern is exemplified by its slower-paced atmosphere. New Bern is excellent for those who enjoy quiet surroundings, as there isn't a lot of street noise or city clamor.
